

CONCLUSION

N.J.A.C. 4A:4-4.8(b) requires an appointing authority to notify Agency Services of the disposition of a certification by the disposition due date in the manner prescribed by this agency. Clearly, Irvington has violated this vital regulation. The Commission is specifically given the power to assess compliance costs and fines against an appointing authority, including all administrative costs and charges, as well as fines of not more than $10,000, for noncompliance or violation of Civil Service law or rules or any order of the Commission. N.J.S.A. 11A:10-3; N.J.A.C. 4A:10-2.1(a)2. See In the Matter of Fiscal Analyst (M1351H), Newark, Docket No. A-4347-87T3 (App. Div. February 2, 1989). Therefore, Irvington is ordered to return the certification within 20 days of the issuance date on this decision. If, at any time, Irvington does not adhere to the timeframes for the proper certification disposition without an approved extension of time, it shall be assessed fines of $100 per day for each day of continued violation up to a maximum of $10,000.

ORDER

Therefore, it is ordered that Irvington properly dispose of the May 6, 2016 certification (OL160577) of the eligible list for Fire Fighter (M1540T) within 20 days of the issuance date on this decision.

Moreover, the Commission orders that the costs incurred by this agency in the compliance process be assessed against Irvington in the amount of $1,000, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 11A:10-3 and N.J.A.C. 4A:10-3.2(a)5, to be remitted within 30 days of the issuance of this decision.

If, at any time, Irvington does not adhere to the timeframes for the proper certification disposition without an approved extension of time, it shall be assessed fines of $100 per day for each day of continued violation up to a maximum of $10,000.

This is the final administrative determination in this matter. Any further review should be pursued in a judicial forum.
