HE NEW JERSEY CONSTRUCTION REPORTER contains statistics on construction activity in New Jersey. Information in the report comes from construction officials who administer the State Uniform Construction Code (UCC) (N.J.A.C. 5:23-1 et seq.) in New Jersey's 566 municipalities.

Each month, construction officials send to the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs (DCA) reports on the permits and certificates they issue. Permits authorize the start of construction and cover four types of activity: (1) New construction permits authorize the start of a new structure. (2) Permits for additions refer to work that will add space (volume and square feet) to an existing building. (3) Alterations also involve existing structures, but the work authorized will not add space. Typically, construction officials issue permits for alterations when the work is subject to one or more of the UCC's major subcodes (building, electrical, plumbing, fire protection). (4) Demolition permits authorize the removal of a building or some other structure. The CONSTRUCTION REPORTER identifies only those demolitions that will result in the loss of housing.

In addition to permits, the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER has information on the certificates issued by construction officials. While permits authorize the start of construction, certificates are issued for work completed and ready for occupancy. Each month, the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER will report on the number of housing units and the amount of office and retail space authorized for construction, along with the number of housing units and the amount of office and retail space completed.

Data Comparability

The CONSTRUCTION REPORTER contains information on authorized housing units that is tabulated two different ways. The DCA tabulates Tables 1 through 3 and Tables 8 through 13 based on the use of buildings, defined in "groups" by New Jersey's UCC. Exhibit B on page 3 summarizes these groups.

Tables 4, 5, and 6 show authorized housing units as defined and tabulated by the United States Census Bureau. The New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development prepares these tables for publication in the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER. Exhibit C on page 4 describes the housing definitions used by the Census Bureau.

The DCA series and the Census Bureau series on authorized housing units differ two important ways. First, the DCA series includes housing units created as a result of permits issued to alter or make additions to existing structures. The Census Bureau counts only those housing units authorized from permits issued for new construction.

Second, the Census Bureau imputes data for localities that fail to submit monthly reports on time. An asterisk in the Census column of data appearing in the Municipal Summary Data table at the back of the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER indicates those towns with imputed data. The Census Bureau bases these imputations on historic trends. The DCA series shows information for only those towns that submitted monthly reports. If a municipality failed to submit a monthly report on time, "No report" appears in the appropriate columns in the Municipal Summary Data table.

Additional Terms

A number of other terms appear in the tables throughout the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER. Exhibit A on page 2 defines additional construction permit and certificate terms.

Exhibit A

Sumn	nary of Building Permit and Certificate Terms
Addition	Permit type issued for construction work that adds space (volume and square feet) to an existing structure.
Alteration	Permit type involving one or more subcodes (building, electrical, fire protection, and plumbing). The work is authorized for an existing structure and does not add new space.

Examples of residential groups include: one- and two-family houses (R-3 and R-5); apartments, townhouses, and other multifamily houses (R-2); and mixed-use housing where the house is a relatively smaller part of a building that has another use (e.g., an apartment over a store). Therapeutic residences (R-4) for 6 to 16 occupants are also included in this category. The Table 1 series ar Tables 2 and 3 show authorized housing units by group definition.
The following grou	ips refer to industrial, commercial, and other nonresidential structures.
Assembly	Structures where people gather for civic, social, or religious purposes. Examples include: theaters (group A-1); night clubs, dance halls, casino gaming areas, etc. (A-2); libraries, restaurants, lecture halls, art galleries (A-3); houses of worship (A-4); and grandstands, coliseums, stadiums, and amusement park structures (A-5).
Business	Office buildings (group B) for business transactions of all kinds including banks, corporate offices, professional offices, government buildings, beauty shops, motor vehicle showrooms, and out-patient clinics.
Educational	Buildings for educational purposes through the 12th grade (group E).
Hazardous Use	Buildings used to manufacture, process, or store materials that constitute a high fire, explosion, or health hazard (group H).
Hotels, Motels, Guest Houses	Buildings for shelter and sleeping where the primary occupants use the facility on a temporary basis, staying less than 30 days (group R-1).
Industrial	Factory buildings where the occupants make, process, or assemble products that are not highly combustible, flammable, or explosive. Includes automotive, appliance, and furniture manufacturers; electric power plants; food processing plants; foundries; and water pumping, solid waste disposal, and incineration plants (group F).
Institutional	Buildings for people who suffer from physical limitations because of age or health; buildings for people detained for penal or correction purposes. Includes: supervised residential homes for six or more people (group I-1); medical and nursing-care facilities (I-2); jails, reformatories, and asylums (I-3); and day care for six or more occupants (I-4).
Mercantile	Buildings for display and sale purposes. Includes retail stores, automotive service stations, shops, salesrooms, and markets (group M).

Exhibit C

Residential Structures (U.S. Census Bureau Definitions)
Tables 4, 5, and 6 show authorized housing units based on the structure types defined below by the U.S. Census Bureau. The number of units shown in these tables refers to those authorized by building permits issued for new construction only.
Single-Family Houses	Include all detached one-family houses and all attached one-family houses separated by a wall that extends from ground to roof with no common heating system or inter-structural public utilities. Include prefabricated, sectionalized, panelized, and modular homes that are manufactured partially off site, but are transported and assembled at the construction site.
Two-Family Buildings	Include all buildings with two housing units that may be above one another or side by side. If built side by side, the structures (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof; or (2) share a heating system; or (3) have inter-structural public utilities, such as water supply and sewage disposal.
Three- and Four- Family Buildings	Include all buildings with three or four housing units. If built side by side, the structures (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof; or (2) share a heating system; or (3) have inter-structural public utilities, such as water supply and sewage disposal.
Five-or-More- Family Buildings	Include all buildings with five or more housing units. If built side by side, the structures (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof; or (2) share a heating system; or (3) have inter-structural public utilities, such as water supply and sewage disposal.

Public Housing Units	Housing owned by a governmental body during the period of construction.

JANUARY 2010 HIGHLIGHTS

- Bad weather and the economic slump made January 2010 one of the worst months or construction. The estimated cost of work authorized by building permits was $537.6 million, 16.4 percent less than last month.
- Residential work totaled $287.5 million (53.5 percent). Nonresidential construction amounted to $250.1 million (46.5 percent); 549 municipalities reported.
- The last time the dollar amount of construction was this low was ten years ago, in February 2000, when the estimated cost of all work authorized by permits was $517.4 million.
- Homebuilders continued to struggle. Only 792 new houses were authorized by permits. In the past 170 months, January 2010 ranked as the fifth worst month. The four months with lower productivity all were in 2009 (January, April, June, and July).

 Princeton Borough in Mercer County led all municipalities with the most work, $21.4 million. New home construction accounted for most of this activity. A new, marketrate townhouse development broke ground in the Hullfish Street neighborhood. This accounted for 54 new dwellings. Princeton Borough ranked second among localities with the most new houses in January.

- The City of Paterson in Passaic County had $12.8 million of work, most of which was due to new home construction. Paterson had 91 authorized units, top among municipalities. A new apartment building broke ground that will have 83 units.
- Jersey City also had $12.8 million of construction in January. What is remarkable about this is that new home construction was not the reason. For the past decade, no other locality had more new houses. Over the past ten years, Jersey City accounted for about 7 percent of all the new homes built in New Jersey. This month, however, the City only had two authorized dwellings. Office and school renovations accounted for most of the activity in January 2010.
- Newark in Essex County had $11.8 million of construction. This was the fourth highest total. Residential work accounted for 45 percent of authorized activity. The construction office issued building permits for 47 new houses. This was the third highest total in the State.

(P) the 2009 data are preliminary data and do not include late reports. The 1989 - 2008 data are final totals and , therefore are not comparable to the 2009 preliminary data.

*Year-to-date totals include data received too late for monthly tabulation. The Census Bureau allocates revisions to prior months and therefore monthly year-to-date totals reflect these changes.

Authorized dwelling units in the Table 1 series and Table 2 do not match those in Tables 4, 5, and 6 due to definitional differences. See "Data Comparability" section on page 1, and Exhibits B and C on pages 3 and 4 for details.

NOTE:

Users of the monthly CONSTRUCTION REPORTER may notice that year-to-date figures in a particular issue may not be obtained by merely summing the monthly totals that appear in previous issues. This is because the construction data compiled by the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs are continuously updated. Monthly construction reports submitted too late to make the January issue of the CONSTRUCTION REPORTER, for example, are included in the year-to-date totals that appear in the February issue.
