ABOUT

Fire Is Black

Part 1 of a 5 part series.

Learn the true nature of fire. Fire isn't like you've seen it in movies or on television. It's not bright, it's black! This video introduces you to the reality of what fire is really like and why fire safety is so important.

The middle school age based "Fire is…" fire prevention program now enjoys the support of The Burn Center at St. Barnabas. The New Jersey Fire Safety Coalition asks its fire service partner fire officials and fire departments to make a special effort during National Burn Awareness Week (February 3-8) 2014 to bring this life safety program to their local school districts.
