

You Are Invited

A complimentary copy of Priceless
will be presented to all registered guests

---

2015 NJ History & Historic Preservation Conference Opening Reception

June 3, 2015

Join us for light hors d'oeuvres and beverages on the veranda at Towerview, with our hosts
Senator Diane Allen and Samuel Leeds Allen III

Featuring our guest speaker Robert K. Wittman, former FBI special agent and author of Priceless: How I Went Undercover to Rescue the World's Stolen Treasures

5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
$50 per person

Register online at:
www.njpreservationconference.org/registration.html

Directions to the location in Edgewater Park will be emailed in advance of the event

Call (609) 984-0473 with any questions

---

TOWERVIEW HISTORY

The home of Samuel Leeds Allen III and Senator Diane Allen started out as a small simple farm house on land owned by Elias Boudinot, member of the Continental Congress. The house was enlarged in the Italian villa style in 1855, and later remodeled as a grand Colonial Revival house. A succession of owners made this a summer residence, then a year-round home. The Allens continue to be conscientious stewards of their historic riverbank mansion.

HONORARY COMMITTEE

Senator Diane Allen
Ed Martoglio, RPM Development Group
Katherine Ng, Wu & Associates