

The Hancock House State Historic Site Presents:

In the Footsteps of Cornelia

A Civil War Living-History and Tour

"I saw for the first time what war meant. . ."

Saturday, July 14th

Rain or Shine

10 am - 4pm: Civil War Living-History

Learn about the 12th New Jersey Volunteers, Company I (recruited out of Salem County) and their role in the Battle of Gettysburg. Hear how young Cornelia Hancock left Hancock's Bridge to care for the wounded afterward, arriving at Gettysburg just a few days after the battle.

2 pm: Cornelia Hancock Tour

A special guided tour of sites associated with Cornelia throughout Lower Alloways Creek. (The tour will start at the Hancock House and will be conducted caravan style to some locations, so be prepared to drive if necessary.)

This is a FREE event and tour sponsored by The Friends of the Hancock House, Inc.
