VIA TRAIN

From the North, take any New Jersey Transit train, which originates in New York City at Penn Station (33rd & 7th Avenue), or Amtrak train to the Trenton Station. From the South, take Amtrak or SEPTA to the Trenton Station.

The train station is about eight blocks (about a twenty-minute brisk walk) from the Hughes Justice Complex. To walk to the Complex, exit the train station on the R. Wallenberg Avenue side. Go down the hill on Wallenberg, follow signs for pedestrians to take, and turn right onto Market Street. Follow Market Street for about five blocks (passing the Mercer County Court House on Broad Street). The Justice Complex will be on your left. Taxis and a bus are available for those who do not wish to walk.

VIA ROUTE ONE

Take the US Highway 1 South Ramp. Take the exit towards the "Capitol Complex-Last Exit Before Toll" or "Warren Street." Go straight at bottom of ramp. At stop sign, go straight across Warren Street into the parking lot.
