Content Note

This series consists of 5 framed color photographs depicting a project to stabilize the abandoned hospital buildings on the New Jersey side of Ellis Island. The photographs were part of a larger exhibit at the New Jersey State Museum entitled “Forgotten Gateway: The Abandoned Buildings of Ellis Island,” which took place 15 April – 30 June 2000. A copy of the exhibit brochure is included with the first item.

Access Note

Because the photographer retains the copyright of these images, they cannot be copied or reproduced.
