Things You Should Know At Retirement

When Can I Retire?

There is no minimum retirement age under the ABP. A member may take a cash distribution, or begin collecting an annuity, from the investment carrier to which contributions have been remitted, at any time after termination of employment.

However, once a member takes a distribution, including a rollover of any amount to an IRA, the member is automatically considered retired, regardless of age, and cannot participate in any State-administered retirement system.

Age Limits, Distributions

Lump-sum cash distributions to members under the age of 55 are limited to the member's contributions and earnings. The remaining employer contributions and earnings are available only when a member reaches age 55 or thereafter.

Distribution: Lump Sum, Fixed Term Annuity, or Life Annuity

At retirement, a member may elect to receive all or a portion of his/her account in a lump-sum distribution, or as a fixed term or life annuity. The types of payout plans vary from carrier to carrier and should be a major consideration when the member selects a carrier at the time of enrollment or transfer.

All returns of contributions and earnings are considered taxable in the year they are received.

What happens If I Delay Distribution?

A member may delay collecting a benefit from his or her 401(a) contracts following termination of employment. The employer should make the member aware that; if the member terminates ABP employment and then delays taking a distribution (retirement) for a period of time greater than twelve months, the member is no longer eligible for retired group life insurance benefits under the ABP, even if the other eligibility requirements for ABP retired group life insurance coverage are met.

Do I qualify for State or Employer-paid Health Insurance Benefits at Retirement?

Under a Chapter 209, P.L. 2001, members who accumulate a total of 25 or more years of non-concurrent pension credit in ABP or multiple pension funds may be eligible for State or employer-paid coverage at retirement, as long as they meet the following requirements:

- Be eligible for employer-paid health benefits coverage immediately prior to retirement or separation from the last contributing employer in the retirement system, for retirees of the State, school boards, county colleges, or participating local employers who have agreed by resolution to pay for the coverage of their retirees (see below), and;
- Notify the Division of Pensions and Benefits that they have a total of 25 or more years of non-concurrent service in more than one public retirement system in New Jersey. Contact the Division's Office of Client Services at pensions.nj@treas.state.nj.us or call (609) 292-7524. For more information about the State Health Benefits Program or the School Employees' Health Benefits Program visit www.state.nj.us/treasury/pensions/shbp.htm
- In order to qualify for retired health benefits, you are required to take a minimum distribution within 30 days of your retirement date. You must contact your financial carrier for the necessary forms.
