

How Can I Get An Income Tax Return Booklet?

File Online For Free!

NJ WebFile is fast, secure, and accurate.

The best part? In most cases, we can process your online return faster than paper forms.

If you are not eligible to use NJ WebFile, you can use our free NJ Fill'nFile form to file.

Paper Tax Booklets

We will begin mailing paper tax booklets during the week of January 9, 2017. The Division of Taxation will mail booklets to most New Jersey households that filed paper returns last year without using tax preparation software. If you filed a paper return last year and have not received your booklet by the second week in February 2017, or if you do not expect to receive a booklet but want one, see below for how to order paper forms.

Tax year 2016 is the last year that we will print the nonresident-return instruction booklet, NJ-1040NR. Beginning with tax year 2017, you can get NJ-1040NR only online. Or you can skip paper forms and file electronically.
