

Section 2.2.4.2 (1) Deck Slabs - add the following paragraph after the first paragraph of the Item 1 Section (e.g. should be the second paragraph):

Longitudinal expansion joints shall only be provided where necessary to accommodate transverse expansion on wide structures (e.g. wider than 90 feet) and between parallel bridges. Joints shall preferably be located at the median barrier and shall be no greater than 1 inch.