

SPOTLIGHT ON ATLANTIC CITY

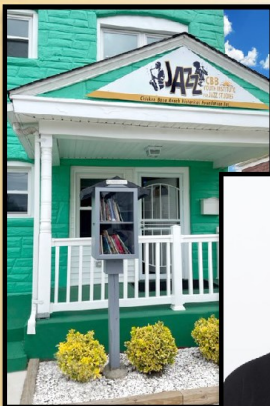

Chicken Bone Beach Historical Foundation, Inc.

Chicken Bone Beach Historical Foundation, Inc. (CBB) is a non-profit organization founded in 1997 whose title pays homage to the historical segregation of African Americans on Atlantic City beaches (referred to as “Chicken Bone Beach”). CBB’s mission is “to create pride in our Black heritage and promote family values and unity in Atlantic County by educating and exposing our youth, the community and tourists to the original American art form of jazz. This allows us to also celebrate the rich and dynamic African-American history during the era of Chicken Bone Beach.”

Preserving Jazz History and African American Culture in Atlantic City

Co-Founder, President & CEO

CBB keeps youth at the heart of its foundation, conducting tuition-free Music & Voice Lessons year round for Atlantic City kids to continue their music training under master teachers. It also hosts a free, weekly jazz concert series during the summer, drawing some of the biggest names in American Jazz to the Atlantic City Boardwalk. CBB believes that jazz is a progressive gathering force of inclusion that can turn the memory of an unfortunate chapter of American history into a positive force of good.
