The Sexual Assault Services Formula Program (SAS Formula Program) was created by the Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA 2005), 34 U.S.C. § 12511. The SAS Formula Program directs grant dollars to states and territories to assist them in supporting rape crisis centers (including governmental rape crisis centers not in territories and tribal governmental programs) and nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations that provide core services, direct intervention, and related assistance to victims of sexual assault regardless of age. Funds provided through the SAS Formula Program are designed to supplement other funding sources directed at addressing sexual assault on the state and territorial level. Rape crisis centers and other nonprofit organizations, such as dual programs providing both domestic violence and sexual violence intervention services, play a vital role in assisting sexual assault victims through the healing process, as well as assisting victims through the medical, criminal justice, and other social support systems. In order to provide comprehensive services to victims of sexual assault, the SAS Formula Program will assist states and territories in supporting rape crisis centers and other nonprofit organizations in the provision of direct intervention and related assistance.

The Office on Violence Against Women, Department of Justice will award $22,750,000 in Fiscal Year 2018 in SAS Formula Program grants. Each state, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico will receive a base amount of $337,837; the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam, and the Northern Mariana Islands will each receive a base amount of $56,875. All recipients will also receive a portion of the remaining funds in amounts determined by the size of their population. The FY 2018 award to New Jersey is $473,289.

The timing for performance of this award is 24 months.
