

Black Drum

Pogonias cromis

Description:

- ◆ deep gray body
- ◆ 4-5 broad black bars/saddles over back of fish
- ◆ many long chin barbels
- ◆ all fins dusky black
- ◆ bars fade in adult fish

Size:

- ◆ up to 67 inches

Range:

- ◆ Nova Scotia to Florida; Gulf of Mexico; southern Brazil to Argentina

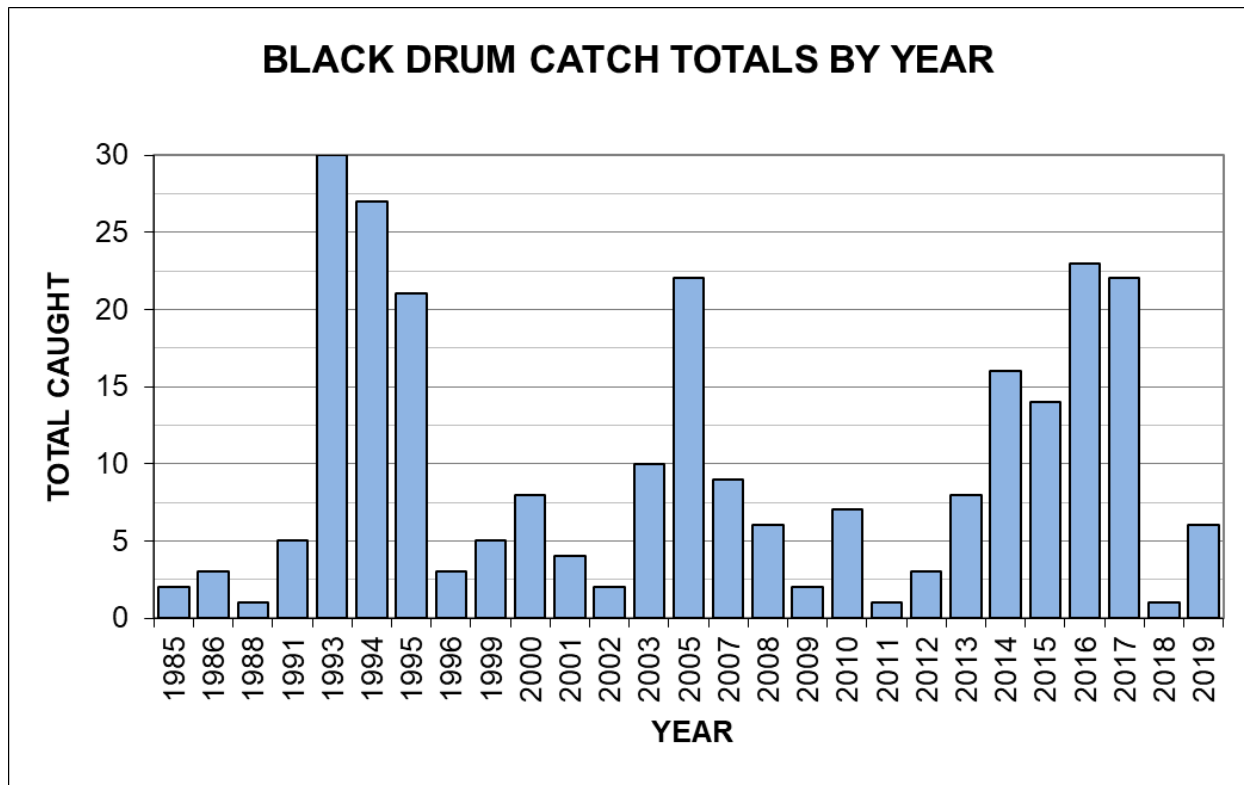

Facts:

- ◆ capable of spawning almost every 3 days
- ◆ an average sized, ripe female could potentially produce 32 million eggs annually
- ◆ eggs hatch in less than 24 hours
- ◆ adults prefer shallow coastal and estuarine waters
- ◆ lifespan estimated to be 43 years on Florida's Gulf coast and 58 on the Atlantic coast

Black Drum

Pogonias cromis

For more information about black drum, please check out these articles:

Drum Fish: A Profile

<https://www.njfishandwildlife.com/artdrumfish18.htm>

Delaware Bay Dangerfields

<http://www.njfishandwildlife.com/pdf/2007/digmar6-11.pdf>

Species Profile: Black Drum

<http://www.njfishandwildlife.com/pdf/2007/digmar20-29.pdf>