

The sustainability event you've been waiting for...

STOKING THE SUSTAINABILITY FIRE

EXPANDING VISION
LEADING CHANGE

June 5 and June 6, 2009

- Accelerate your activism. Capitalize on your sense of urgency. Ignite sustainable practices where you live, work or play
- Learn concrete strategies to help you lead your community toward a more sustainable future
- Gain a clearer, more comprehensive understanding of the many sustainability challenges we all face
- Move your town, school, business, religious organization or neighborhood toward sustainable change faster
- Help create the powerful network of sustainability activists we all need

Location: The Bart Luedeke Center at Rider University,
2083 Lawrenceville Road, Lawrence Township NJ 08648

Friday, June 5th & Saturday, June 6th, 2009

Flexible scheduling:

- Come Friday for the latest and fullest on green purchasing and waste management;
- Celebrate at Friday evening's Sustainability Slam and enjoy provocative films;
- Come Saturday for one or more of seven different theme sessions.

Learn, share, strategize, connect, and enjoy our emerging community of sustainability leaders.

SAVE THE DATES!

June 5 and June 6, 2009

Program details and registration information will be forthcoming.