

Carmel High School

PLC Wednesday

PLC Late Start (Every Gold Wednesday)

To allow time for teachers at Carmel High School to pursue professional growth and development through their respective Professional Learning Communities, on designated days the start of classes will be postponed until 8:30 a.m.

Buses will run at normal times and school will be open at normal times.

Students will have access to the Media Center for research and study, tutors from the National Honor Society will make themselves available to their fellow students, and breakfast will be served in the cafeterias.

Other programs will be provided in the English large group instruction room on a variety of topics of interest to students. Supervision will be present in all areas.]
