

Middle School Personal Finance Toolbox

Personal Finance Curriculum and Instruction Resources

Organization Name	Organization Description	Website Link
Next Gen Personal Finance (NGPF)	NGPF is a free K-12 personal finance curriculum and professional development partner helping teachers deliver essential money understanding in an easy-to-grasp, engaging way. They offer a complete course of up-to-date, customizable lessons and activities designed to spark participation and make ideas memorable.	Next Gen Personal Finance Middle School Resources
National Education Association	Resources to supplement your curriculum and help students gain the financial literacy skills they'll need to manage their financial resources effectively throughout their lives.	National Education Association Resources for Teaching Financial Literacy
Hands-On Banking	Lessons, activities, and teacher guides from Wells Fargo that cover kids, teens, and young adults.	Hands-On Banking Financial Literacy Resources
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation – Money Smart	Standards-aligned curriculums that can be incorporated into subjects such as English language arts, mathematics and social studies. Multiple lessons and resource guides for teachers.	Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Money Smart Resources
BIZ Kid$ on PBS: TV Show	TV show that teaches teens about personal finance. Show's website provides activity guides, lesson plans and games.	PBS BIZ Kid$ Personal Finance Resources

Organization Name	Organization Description	Website Link
Money Math Lessons for Life	Lessons for Life is a four-lesson curriculum supplement for middle school math classes, teaching grades 7-9 math concepts using real-life examples from personal finance.	Money Math Lessons for Life Curriculum Supplement
Kitsap Credit Union – It's a Money Thing Videos	"It's A Money Thing" will introduce you to a collection of humorous, yet effective financial education videos. Grounded in research, each video focuses on a specific topic and takes just a few minutes to view.	Kitsap Credit Union It's a Money Thing Videos
My Classroom Economy	My Classroom Economy is a simple classroom economic system based on the idea that students need to earn school "dollars" so that they can rent their own desks. By bringing real-world scenarios into the classroom, students see the impact of their decisions to save, spend, and budget.	My Classroom Economy Website
Financial Beginnings	Financial Beginnings offers elementary, middle, and high school programs. All of the materials and presenters are available at no cost to schools or participants.	Financial Beginnings Website
MoneySKILL	MoneySKILL educates students of all ages on the basic understanding of money-management fundamentals. The course includes the content areas of income, expenses, saving and investing, credit, and insurance.	MoneySKILL Website

Organization Name	Organization Description	Website Link
Council for Economic Education (CEE)	The Council for Economic Education (CEE) is the leading non-profit organization in the United States that focuses on personal finance and economic education for students K-12.	Council for Economic Education Website
SmartPath	Lesson plans and activities that teachers can bring into the classroom. SmartPath website also has additional resources for educators.	SmartPath Classroom Lessons and Resources
Financial Lessons: Federal Reserve of Philadelphia	The Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia publishes lessons for K-12 teachers to use to teach economics and personal finance in their own classrooms. The lessons emphasize active- and collaborative-learning teaching methodologies.	Federal Reserve of Philadelphia: Financial Lessons
Junior Achievement	Junior Achievement's middle school programs foster work readiness, entrepreneurship, and financial literacy skills, and use experiential learning to inspire students to dream big and reach their potential.	Junior Achievement Financial Literacy Programs
EverFi	EverFi is an interactive curriculum that includes quizzes in video-game format. It offers web-based tours of the New York Stock Exchange and explanations of compounding interest and savings, the pitfalls of bad credit and consumer fraud to teach students the core concepts of financial literacy.	EverFi Financial Literacy Resources

Organization Name	Organization Description	Website Link
Jump$tart Coalition	Jump$tart supports the financial education efforts of its partners and affiliates, brings together the financial literacy community to foster cooperation and collaboration. Jump$tart raises the importance of financial literacy and the importance of effective financial education.	Jump$tart Financial Literacy Resources