SYNOPSIS

Petitioner demanded that respondents amend their records for his daughter, J.K.C., to reflect his surname in addition to her mother’s surname.

The ALJ determined to dismiss the matter without prejudice because the issues of visitation, alleged harassment and emotional distress set forth in petitioner’s writings are proper matters for the Superior Court, Family Division, and petitioner’s dispute with respondents is limited since respondent South Hunterdon has indicated it will amend its records if presented with appropriate documentation.

The Commissioner adopted as his own the recommendation of the ALJ to dismiss the matter without prejudice to petitioner pursuing the issue of his daughter’s legal surname in a court of appropriate jurisdiction.
