SYNOPSIS

Petitioner challenged the State Board of Examiners' denial of his application for permanent certification as a teacher of skilled trades in New Jersey's public schools based on his conviction for felony murder for a homicide which occurred during the course of a robbery.

At the OAL respondent filed an application for summary decision which was unopposed by petitioner. The ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to sustain his burden of proving the Board abused its discretion in denying petitioner's application for a teaching certificate and granted respondent's application for summary decision.

The Commissioner agreed with the ALJ that summary decision is appropriately granted to respondent in this matter.
