SYNOPSIS

Petitioner, former principal, alleged the Board violated his tenure rights when it assigned him to a vice principal position.

The ALJ concluded that petitioner did not attain tenure as principal pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6(a). The ALJ found that petitioner was appointed to the position on August 22, 2000 and served until August 12, 2002, a period that plainly falls short of the two calendar years required by statute. Moreover, the ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to serve the required length of time mandated by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6(b) as defined in academic years and, thus, he was not entitled to tenure under this statutory provision. Petition was dismissed.

The Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision as his own.
