The associate school library media specialist (ASLMS) endorsement is required for anyone who serves as a school library media specialist in all public schools under the supervision of a certified school administrator, principal or supervisor. The functions include delivery of instruction in information literacy skills, and the development and coordination of school library media programs and resources. The holder also provides instruction in the evaluation, selection, organization, distribution, creation and utilization of school library media. These media are defined as all print, non-print and electronic resources including the technologies needed for their use.

The following individuals are eligible to receive the standard ASLMS endorsement:

1. Those holding a standard New Jersey Teacher-Librarian or standard Associate Educational Media Specialist certificate.
2. The holder of the Teacher-Librarian or Associate Educational Media Specialist certificate is eligible to receive an extension of the authorization to include the functions of the ASLMS authorization.
