Changes to Residency Requirements for Principal Certification\(^1\) (N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-12.5(d)-(i))

Background
On November 4, 2015, the State Board of Education adopted updates to a range of teacher preparation and certification requirements. This package includes changes to the structure of the residency requirement for principals. Previously, to be eligible for the standard administrative certificate with a principal endorsement, candidates had to possess a provisional certificate and complete a two-year State-approved residency program while employed in a school district. At the end of the residency period, candidates were approved or disapproved for standard certification based on their performance in the residency program and a professional recommendation from their individual mentor. The new requirements are intended to build more individualization and flexibility into the program requirements in response to feedback from principals, and to align with the \textit{TEACHNJ Act}.
