

DO YOU OR DOES SOMEONE YOU KNOW HAVE A CHANGE IN VISION?

Free Assistive Technology Classes Are Available For NJ Residents 55 Or Older.

- Learn how to use computers and iPads with assistive technology features, such as magnification and speech.
- iPads provided in class, but you can also bring your own!
- Assistive devices always available for use by library patrons.

CLASSES OFFERED AT THESE PUBLIC LIBRARIES:

- Atlantic City Free Public Library – Main & Richmond Ave branches
- Atlantic County Library – Mays Landing
- Cherry Hill Public Library
- East Brunswick Public Library
- Johnson Public Library – Hackensack
- Monmouth County Library – Manalapan
- Morristown & Morris Township Library
- Newark Public Library – Main Branch
- Ocean County Library – Toms River
- South Orange Public Library

To Sign Up for Classes, Call
The Talking Book & Braille Center
800-792-8322, extension 802