New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 36A. SPECIAL TREATMENT UNITS > SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 10:36A-1.4 Definitions

The following words and terms, as used in this chapter, shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Canine search" means a search conducted by a canine team consisting of a handler(s) and a dog(s) specially trained to discover and indicate to the handler(s) the presence of various substances and/or materials.

"Clinical staff" means employees of the Department of Human Services, Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services, assigned to the Special Treatment Unit, who are members of treatment teams or who work in rehabilitation services or discipline-specific supervisory positions including, but not limited to, psychiatry, psychology, and social work.

"Contraband," for the purpose of these rules, means:

1. Any item, article or material found in the possession of, or under the control of, a resident which is not authorized for retention or receipt;
2. Any item, article or material found within the unit or on its grounds which has not been issued by the unit or authorized as permissible for retention or receipt;
3. Any item, article or material found in the possession of, or under the control of, staff or visitors within the unit or on the unit grounds which is not authorized for receipt, retention or importation;
4. Any item, article or material which is authorized for receipt, retention or importation by residents, staff or visitors but which is found in an excessive amount or which has been altered from its original form. An amount shall be considered excessive if it exceeds stated unit limits or exceeds reasonable safety, security, sanitary, or space considerations; or
5. Any article which may be harmful or counter-therapeutic, or which may present a threat to the health or safety of the residents, staff or general public or to the secure and orderly operation of the unit shall be considered contraband. Items of contraband shall include, but shall not be limited to: electronic communication devices, guns and firearms of any type; ammunition; explosives; knives, tools and other implements not provided in accordance with unit regulations; hazardous or poisonous chemicals and gases; unauthorized drugs and medications; medicines dispensed or approved by the unit but not consumed or utilized in the manner prescribed; intoxicants, including, but not limited to, liquor or alcoholic beverages; pornography, inappropriate materials that are counter-therapeutic; and where prohibited, currency and stamps.

"Custody staff" except as otherwise provided, means Custody Supervisors, Senior Correction Officers and Correction Officer Recruits who have been sworn as peace officers.

"Department of Corrections (DOC)" means the New Jersey Department of Corrections.

"Department of Human Services (DHS)" means the New Jersey Department of Human Services.

"Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS)" means the Division in the Department of Human Services responsible for providing or arranging for treatment of persons committed pursuant to the SVPA.

"DOC Administrator" means the administrator employed by the New Jersey Department of Corrections who serves as the chief executive officer of any Special Treatment Unit and who has oversight responsibilities for DOC staff.

"DMHAS Clinical Director" means the administrator employed by the Department of Human Services, Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services, who has oversight responsibilities for DHS/DMHAS staff.

"Interagency Oversight Board" means a board of representatives appointed by the Commissioners of the Department of Corrections and the Department of Human Services that participate in oversight of the Special Treatment Unit in order to facilitate the coordination of STU policies and procedures pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-27.34. Such representatives shall include Departmental administrative or executive staff and shall not be limited to or exclusively comprised of STU staff directly responsible for managing the day-to-day operations within an STU.

"Internal management procedures and policies" means procedures and policies issued and maintained by the DMHAS Clinical Director or designee for implementation of the facility sex offender treatment program and the procedures and policies that are issued and maintained by the DOC Administrator or designee to provide specific operating procedures for the secure facility.

"Modified Activities Program (MAP)," when used in this chapter, means a behavior modification program used as a sex offender treatment intervention that limits a resident's activities to his or her room, tier, wing or program.

"Resident" means a person who has been temporarily involuntarily civilly committed or involuntarily civilly committed pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:4-27.24 et seq. to a secure facility operated by the Department of Corrections with custodial care provided or arranged for by the Department of Corrections, and sex offender treatment services provided by, or arranged for by the DMHAS in the Department of Human Services.

"Scanning/testing device" means a mechanical and/or electronic instrument used to identify or to detect certain substances and materials.

"Scanning/testing device operator" means an individual specially trained and authorized by the Department of Corrections to operate a scanning/testing device.

"Scanning/testing device search" means a search of a person or object by exposure to a mechanical and/or electronic instrument used to detect certain substances and materials.

"Sexually violent offense" means:

1. Aggravated sexual assault; sexual assault; aggravated criminal sexual contact; kidnapping pursuant to subparagraph (b) of paragraph (2) of subsection c. of N.J.S.A. 2C:13-1; criminal sexual contact; felony murder pursuant to paragraph (3) of N.J.S.A. 2C:11-3 if the underlying crime is sexual assault; an attempt to commit any of these enumerated offenses;
2. A criminal offense with substantially the same elements as any offense enumerated in paragraph 1 above, entered or imposed under the laws of the United States, this State or another state; or
3. Any offense for which the court makes a specific finding on the record that, based on the circumstances of the case, the person's offense should be considered a sexually violent offense.

"Sexually violent predator" means a person who:

1. Has been convicted, adjudicated delinquent or found not guilty by reason of insanity for commission of a sexually violent offense, or has been charged with a sexually violent offense but found to be incompetent to stand trial; and
2. Suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder that makes the person likely to engage in acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility for custody, care, control and treatment.

"Sexually Violent Predator Act (SVPA)" means N.J.S.A. 30:4-27.24 et seq.

"Special Treatment Unit (STU)," "facility" or "unit" means a secure facility for involuntarily civilly committed residents, operated by the Department of Corrections, with custodial care provided or arranged for by the Department of Corrections, and sex offender treatment services provided by, or arranged for by the DMHAS in the Department of Human Services.

"Temporary Close Custody (TCC)" means the removal of a resident from the general population, or other assigned status, with restriction to a room in a designated area for a period not to exceed 72 hours.

New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 36A. SPECIAL TREATMENT UNITS > SUBCHAPTER 2. RIGHTS OF RESIDENTS

§ 10:36A-2.1 Rights of residents

(a) Subject to the Sexually Violent Predator Act (SVPA), and any other provisions of law and the Constitution of New Jersey and the United States, a resident shall not be deprived of a civil right solely by reason of receiving treatment under the provisions of the SVPA.

Treatment shall not modify or vary legal or civil rights including but not limited to, the right to register for and to vote in elections, or rights relating to the granting, forfeiture, or denial of a license, permit, privilege, or benefit pursuant to any law, except those rights related to providing a safe, secure facility or any appropriate concern.

(b) Every resident shall be entitled to all rights set forth in the SVPA and shall retain all rights not specifically denied in the SVPA.

1. A notice of the rights set forth in this subchapter shall be prominently posted in the STU and shall be given to every resident within five business days of the resident's admission;
2. The notice shall be in writing and in reasonably simple and understandable language;
3. For illiterate residents, residents not sufficiently conversant with the English language, or residents otherwise unable to read due to a physical/medical inability, an alternative method of communication, shall be provided explaining the notice of rights; and
4. The resident shall acknowledge receipt of this notice in writing and a staff member shall place a copy of this written receipt in the resident's files maintained by the Departments of Human Services and Corrections. If the resident refuses to acknowledge receipt of the notice, the person delivering the notice shall make a notation of the refusal on the receipt and a copy of the receipt shall be placed in the resident's files maintained by the Departments of Human Services and Corrections.

§ 10:36A-2.2 Resident rights not subject to denial

(a)Each resident shall have the following rights which shall not be denied under any circumstances:

- 1.The right to be free from unnecessary or excessive medication in accordance with pertinent statutes, standards of medical practice acceptable within the professional community, and applicable internal management procedures and/or policies;
- 2.The right not to be subjected to experimental research or treatment except as provided by court order, consent decree, or other legal process and with the expressed and informed consent of the resident after consultation with counsel or interested party of the resident's choice. Such consent shall be made in writing, a copy of which shall be placed in the appropriate file of the resident maintained by the Departments of Human Services and Corrections;
- 3.The right to confidential communications with the resident's attorney or the courts. The right to confidential communications with the resident's physician, except to the extent that communications are relevant to proceedings under the SVPA as determined by the court;
- 4.The right to be free from corporal punishment; and
- 5.The right to receive essential medical treatment as recommended by the health care provider.

New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 36A. SPECIAL TREATMENT UNITS > SUBCHAPTER 2. RIGHTS OF RESIDENTS

§ 10:36A-2.3 Resident rights subject to denial

(a)Each resident shall have the following rights, which may be curtailed, suspended or denied in accordance with internal management procedures and policies, and pursuant to N.J.A.C. 10:36A-2.4 (10A:35-2.4) when Department of Human Services clinical staff determines that such restrictions are consistent with the therapeutic goals of the resident, or when Department of Corrections staff determines that such restrictions are necessary to protect the resident, other residents, staff, general public, or property, or to ensure the safe, secure and orderly operation of the facility, or for other good cause:

- 1.The right to privacy except as established at N.J.A.C. 10:36A-4 (10A:35-4) and the right to dignity;
- 2.The right to be free from unnecessary physical restraint; except for those situations where a resident has caused substantial property damage, has attempted or shown through threatening gestures or behaviors a substantial or imminent threat to harm self or others, or when other good cause exists indicating that less restrictive means of restraint are not feasible as determined by the Department of Corrections. In such an emergent situation, a resident may be physically restrained or placed in TCC or MAP status as defined in this chapter;
- 3.The right to the least restrictive conditions within the secure facility necessary to achieve the purposes of sex offender treatment that is recommended by the treatment team and necessary to ensure the safety of the residents, staff and the general public;
- 4.The right to wear his or her own clothes within the facility, pursuant to internal management procedures and/or policies applicable to all residents and based on safety and security concerns; to keep and use permissible personal property; and to have access to, and be allowed to spend a reasonable sum of his or her money for commissary or other purchases;
- 5.The right to have individual space for storage use;
- 6.The right to see visitors during regularly scheduled visit periods;
- 7.The right to have reasonable access to, and use of, telephones to have unmonitored conversations;

- 8.The right to have access to the purchase of letter writing materials, including stamps;
- 9.The right to send and receive correspondence;
- 10.The right to participate in physical exercise on a regularly scheduled basis;
- 11.The right to be outdoors at regular and frequent intervals, in the absence of medical considerations; and
- 12.The right to freedom of religious affiliation and voluntary religious worship; however, reasonable restrictions based upon the safe, secure, orderly operation of the facility may be imposed.

§ 10:36A-4.2 Searches of residents and facilities

(a)All facility residential, work, therapy, training, visit and other areas to which residents have access shall be searched thoroughly for contraband on a routine and random basis. Searches shall be unannounced and irregularly timed, and may be limited to a specific building or area.

(b)Procedures to be utilized in conducting searches consistent with this subchapter shall be set forth in an internal management procedure prepared by the DOC Administrator or designee to be promulgated pursuant to the search plan required by N.J.A.C. 10:36A-4.1 (10A:35-4.1). Such procedures shall provide that a resident may be excluded from entry into an area being searched to facilitate the safe and effective performance of the search.

(c)Searches of residents shall be conducted in a professional and dignified manner, with maximum courtesy and respect for the resident's person, and under sanitary conditions.

N.J.A.C. 10:36A-10.2

This file includes all Regulations adopted and published through the New Jersey Register, Vol. 50 No. 19, October 1, 2018

New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 36A. SPECIAL TREATMENT UNITS > SUBCHAPTER 10. RESIDENT WELFARE FUNDS

§ 10:36A-10.2 Accountability for and expenditure of resident welfare funds

- (a)The DOC Business Manager responsible for the Special Treatment Unit shall be responsible for maintaining resident welfare account funds and associated recordkeeping.
- (b)The DOC Administrator and DMHAS Clinical Director, in consultation with the Interagency Oversight Board, shall be jointly responsible for the control and authorization of all expenditures of resident welfare funds.
- (c)Resident welfare funds shall be spent on amenities only for the use, benefit and general welfare of the resident population as a whole. Such amenities may include, but are not limited to, certain domestic equipment such as, but not limited to, appliances or kitchen items, recreation and sports equipment; television services; awards for academic, vocational and sporting achievements; library books, movies, magazines and other subscriptions; annual licensing fees for a film blanket license; visit, recreation, holiday and incentive program decorations and food; stipends for referees and guest speakers; and equipment to enhance the law library that is not otherwise required for legal access.
- (d)Resident welfare funds shall not be used for items that the Departments of Corrections or Human Services are required to provide, the payment of employee salaries, or the purchase of any item or service, which is not intended for use by the population, such as, but not limited to, security equipment or automobiles.
- (e)Inquiries and issues regarding the use of resident welfare funds shall be directed to the DOC Assistant Commissioner, Division of Operations.
- (f)Individuals, corporations, and charitable foundations that wish to donate gifts to the resident welfare account shall submit a notice containing information relative to the gift to the Interagency Oversight Board. Such gifts shall be spent as designated by the donor when such designation is consistent with the provisions set forth in (c) and (d) above. When gifts are undesignated, such gifts shall be spent as designated by the DOC Administrator and the DMHAS Clinical Director in consultation with the Interagency Oversight Board. The monies from these gifts shall be identified separately in the resident welfare fund, so that expenditures can be directly related to the source of funds.

(g)Resident welfare funds shall not be spent for any purpose that is not consistent with the provisions set forth in this subchapter.
