New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 48. APPEAL PROCEDURE > SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 10:48-1.5 Definitions

The following words and terms, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings as defined in N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1 or this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

"Administrative hearing" means a proceeding which is conducted by the Office of Administrative Law.

"Administrative review" means a review of the documentary record that is conducted by a review officer appointed by the Assistant Commissioner, following an informal conference concerning a non-contested matter.

"Appeal" means a request made by an authorized person within the established time frames for a review of a disputed decision of the Division, which involves eligibility, placement, or provision of service. The decision shall be a specific action or proposed action, which is identifiable in terms of date, and person(s) making the decision. General complaints or employee grievances shall not be considered appeals.

"Appellant" means the authorized person who may file an appeal with the Division. The authorized person is one of the following:

1. An individual receiving or applying for Division services;
2. The guardian of an individual who is receiving or applying for Division services;
3. An authorized representative of an individual receiving services or applying for services from the Division, a guardian of an individual receiving services or applying for services from the Division. Written verification of status as an authorized representative from the individual or guardian authorizing representation shall be required;
4. A licensee, or his or her authorized representative, of the Department of Human Services that provides services to an individual receiving services from the Division; or
5. An attorney, if written verification of the client/attorney relationship is provided.

"Assistant Commissioner" means the Assistant Commissioner of the Division of Developmental Disabilities.

"Chairperson" means the individual appointed by the Administrative Practice Office to hold an informal conference.

"Contested matter" means an adversarial proceeding, in which the legal rights, duties, obligations, privileges, benefits or other legal relations of specific parties are required by constitutional right or by statute to be determined by an agency by decisions, determinations or orders, addressed to them or disposing of their interests, after opportunity for an agency hearing. (N.J.S.A. 52:14B-2(b), N.J.A.C. 1:1.)

"Days" shall mean calendar days unless otherwise specified.

"Division" means the Division of Developmental Disabilities.

"Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services (DMAHS)" means the agency under the Department of Human Services that is designated in accordance with 42 CFR § 431.10, as the single State agency for the administration of the New Jersey Medicaid program.

"Evidence" is the means from which inferences may be drawn as a basis of proof in the conduct of contested cases, and includes testimony in the form of opinion and hearsay. (N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1)

"Fair hearing" means an administrative proceeding to resolve an appeal of a Medicaid waiver-funded service when the service has been denied or will be reduced, suspended, or terminated.

"Final decision" means a decision by an agency head that adopts, rejects, or modifies an initial decision by an administrative law judge, an initial decision by an administrative law judge that becomes a final decision by operation of N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10 or a decision by an agency head after an administrative review conducted in accordance with this chapter.

"Guardian" means a person or agency who has qualified as a guardian of the person of an incapacitated individual pursuant to court appointment, to make decisions on behalf of the incapacitated individual in those areas where incapacity has been determined by a court as set forth at N.J.S.A. 3B:12-24.1.

"Informal conference" means a meeting prior to an administrative review in which the respective parties may informally attempt to resolve the issue which is the subject of appeal.

"Involved parties" means the representative of the appellant and the service component.

"Non-contested case" means those appeals not requiring a contested case proceeding under the statutory definition of contested case at N.J.S.A. 52:14B-2(b).

"Non-waiver services" means those services provided to an individual eligible for Division services for which the Division does not receive reimbursement through the Federal Medicaid program.

"Office of Administrative Law (OAL)" means the independent unit assigned to the Department of the Treasury, which has the authority to hear contested matters.

"Placement" means the out-of-home living arrangement, other than for respite, provided by the Division.

"Recommended decision" means the initial determination in a non-contested case made by a Division administrative review officer. That decision is subject to comments or exceptions by the parties and may be accepted, modified or rejected by the Assistant Commissioner.

"Service component" means the operational unit of the Division (for example, Developmental Center, region, bureau, etc.) from which the disputed matter arises.

"Service plan" means a written, individualized plan, consistent with the requirements of N.J.S.A. 30:6D-10 through 12, developed by the interdisciplinary team. It is an outcome-based planning tool that, at a minimum, identifies each individualized program, support, or service requested by and provided to the individual, for which the individual demonstrates a need. It identifies the person or agency responsible for its implementation. The complexity of the service plan will vary according to the individual's interests, preferences, and needs. The service plan format must be Division-approved, but can be chosen from various types of plans, as determined by the requirements of the specific program, service, or support and can include, but is not limited to, the following types of plans: individual service plan, individual habilitation plan, or essential lifestyle plan.

"Settlement" means an agreement between parties which resolves disputed matters and may end all or part of the case. Various methods may be utilized to help parties reach agreement, including:

1. Pre-transmission settlement efforts by an agency;
2. Pre-transmission settlement efforts by an administrative law judge at the request of an agency;
3. Mediation by an administrative law judge; and
4. Post-transmission settlement conferences by an administrative law judge.

(N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1)

"Settlement agreement" means a written agreement that resolves disputed matters in whole or in part. The terms of a settlement agreement shall be written and time limited, or otherwise note when the terms of the agreement have been satisfied. A settlement agreement must be signed by all parties, and is contingent on the signature of the Assistant Commissioner or designee. Unless expressly stated in writing, a settlement agreement shall not:

1. Be construed, interpreted or used as evidence of any admission of fact, law, responsibility, wrongdoing, or liability on the part of any party;
2. Referred to in any subsequent proceedings by any party other than to enforce the express terms of the agreement; and
3. Constitute precedent in any subsequent matter involving the parties or others.

"Settlement conference" means an initial step toward resolving a contested matter prior to transmitting the appeal to the OAL as a contested case.

"Waiver services" means the services available through the authorized Medicaid waiver program in which an individual is enrolled or to which an individual has applied.

New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 48. APPEAL PROCEDURE > SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 10:48-1.6 Process for requesting an appeal

- (a)An initial appeal shall be made in writing to the Administrative Practice Office, Division of Developmental Disabilities, P.O. Box 726, Trenton, NJ 08625-0726.
- (b)Appeals of eligibility under N.J.A.C. 10:46-2 or specific offers of non-waiver-funded services shall be initiated within 30 days from the date on the written notification of ineligibility or offer.
- (c)Appeals of the denial, suspension, reduction, or termination of waiver services must be made, in writing, within 20 days from the date of the notice of such action.
- (d)Appeals of services shall be limited to those services indicated in the service plan or appropriate for inclusion in a service plan that were requested and denied.
- (e)The request for appeal shall be in writing and shall contain the information required below. This information shall be the basis of an initial pleading should the matter be transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law. An appeal shall be denied if the required information is not provided. The request shall include:
- 1.Name and address of appellant;
 - 2.Name and address of person receiving services or applying for services from the Division, if the appeal is made by the person's legal guardian or authorized representative;
 - 3.A brief statement of the matter under appeal;
 - 4.A list of potential witnesses, if known; and
 - 5.Reference to the law, rule, regulation or policy alleged to be violated, if known.
- (f)The Administrative Practice Office shall review the appeal. If the Administrative Practice Office determines that the matter does not conform to the definition of appeal, it shall set forth the reasons for this conclusion in writing and direct, as applicable, the individual to seek other means of redress.
- (g)The appellant shall be notified in writing that the matter does not conform to the definition of an appeal within 10 working days of receipt by the Administrative Practice Office.

(h)The appeal shall be reviewed to determine if it is a contested or non-contested matter.

1.If the matter is determined to be contested, the requirements of N.J.A.C. 10:48-2 shall apply.

2.If the matter is determined to be non-contested, the requirements of N.J.A.C. 10:48-3 shall apply.

i.The appellant shall be notified in writing that the matter is non-contested.

ii.If the appellant disagrees, he or she may request a review of that decision by the Assistant Commissioner.

(i)If the matter does not meet the conditions of this section, and the appellant believes that the matter is contested as defined in this chapter, the appellant shall set forth his or her reasons supporting that the matter should be considered contested in writing.

§ 10:48-1.7 Appeal of offer of placement

(a) Except in emergencies, an appellant may request that the Assistant Commissioner defer the placement of an individual pending resolution of an administrative appeal, as set forth in N.J.A.C. 10:48-2, when the following circumstances apply:

1. The appeal is received verbally or in writing 10 days before the proposed placement, and the appellant:
 - i. Can demonstrate that the placement may place the individual at risk of abuse or neglect;
 - ii. Has new information that was unknown or available at the time the placement offer was made; or
 - iii. Can demonstrate that the placement shall significantly compromise the appellant's ability to have the Division's action reversed or modified through the appeal process.
2. If the Assistant Commissioner agrees to defer the placement, the Division shall not be required to maintain the status quo unless the Division was funding placement prior to the request to defer.

(a) Informal conference requirements are as follows:

1. An informal conference shall be scheduled by the Administrative Practice Office in response to a non-contested matter. The informal conference shall be scheduled no more than 30 working days from the date that a matter is determined to be non-contested. Extension of the conference date beyond 30 working days may only occur upon mutual agreement of both parties.
2. The Administrative Practice Office shall appoint a chairperson to convene the informal conference.
3. The chairperson shall prepare a report specifically identifying the issue(s) under appeal, a summary of the position of both parties, and a decision or the agreement of the parties with respect to each issue. The reasons for the decision shall be provided. The report shall be provided to the appellant within 30 working days of the conference. A copy of this summary shall be retained in the individual's file.
4. The appellant may be represented by legal counsel at the informal conference.
5. No transcript shall be made of the informal conference.

(b) The Rules of Evidence shall not be strictly enforced. Evidence as defined in N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1 may be submitted in informal conferences or administrative reviews. An allegation or conjecture does not constitute evidence.

New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 48. APPEAL PROCEDURE > SUBCHAPTER 5. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

§ 10:48-5.1 Settlement conference

(a)The appellant shall be notified in writing of a time and date of a settlement conference.

(b)The settlement conference shall require a meeting of the parties unless both parties agree to a conference by telephone.

1.The settlement conference shall be chaired by a designee of the Administrative Practice Office.

2.The purpose of the conference is to negotiate a settlement and all matters discussed shall remain confidential and inadmissible as evidence.

3.Evidence or testimony shall not be presented.

4.No recording of the conference shall be made.

5.The appellant may be represented by legal counsel.

6.In addition to the Administrative Practice Office's designee, a representative of the service component initiating the action under appeal shall be present. The Division may elect to have representation by the Office of the Attorney General.

(c)If an agreement is reached, the parties shall execute a settlement agreement, which shall conclude the matter.

(d)If no settlement is reached at the conference, the Administrative Practice Office shall notify the appellant that he or she may submit a written request to the Assistant Commissioner to transmit the matter for an administrative appeal before the OAL.

New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 48. APPEAL PROCEDURE > SUBCHAPTER 6. ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION CONFERENCE AND FAIR HEARING

§ 10:48-6.1 Alternate dispute resolution conference

(a) Alternate dispute resolution conference requirements are as follows:

1. An alternate dispute resolution conference shall be scheduled by the Administrative Practice Office. The alternate dispute resolution conference shall be scheduled no more than 30 working days from the date that the request for alternate dispute resolution is received. Extension of the conference date beyond 30 working days may only occur upon mutual agreement of both parties.
2. The Administrative Practice Office shall appoint a chairperson to convene the alternate dispute resolution conference.
3. Following the conference, the chairperson shall prepare a report specifically identifying the issue(s) under appeal, a summary of the position of both parties, and a decision or the agreement of the parties with respect to each issue. The reasons for the decision shall be provided. The summary shall be provided to the appellant within 30 working days of the conference. A copy of this summary shall be retained in the individual's file.
4. The appellant may be represented by legal counsel at the alternate dispute resolution conference.
5. No transcript shall be made of the alternate dispute resolution conference.
6. The Rules of Evidence shall not be strictly enforced.

(b) If an agreement is reached, the parties shall execute a settlement agreement, which shall conclude the matter.

(c) If the alternate dispute resolution conference is waived, or if settlement is not reached, or at any time in the process, the appellant may request a fair hearing as described at N.J.A.C. 10:48-6.2.

This file includes all Regulations adopted and published through the New Jersey Register, Vol. 50 No. 11, June 4, 2018

New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 10. HUMAN SERVICES > CHAPTER 48. APPEAL PROCEDURE > SUBCHAPTER 7. OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

§ 10:48-7.1 Office of Administrative Law

(a) Those matters determined to be contested shall be referred to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act at N.J.S.A. 52:14B-2(b) and the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1.

(b) If the contested non-waiver-funded services matter is not settled, the Assistant Commissioner shall transmit the matter to the Office of Administrative Law.

1. In the instance of all other contested matters, the matter shall be transmitted within 20 working days of the notice by the Administrative Practice Office that the settlement conference did not resolve the matter.

2. While contested cases are being prepared for transmittal to OAL, further efforts may be made to resolve the issue.

3. The Assistant Commissioner may, at his or her discretion with the agreement of the Director of the OAL, transmit a non-contested matter to the OAL (N.J.S.A. 52:14F-5.o).

(c) The Assistant Commissioner shall notify the appellant that the matter has been transmitted to the OAL.

(d) A decision rendered by OAL shall be adopted, rejected, or modified by the Assistant Commissioner or in the case of fair hearing, by the Director, DMAHS, within 45 days of its receipt (N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c)). This shall be the final decision of the matter under appeal.

(e) Upon issuance, the final decision shall be sent to the involved parties with notice that any further appeal must be to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court of New Jersey.
