Memorial Day at Doyle cemetery; come honor the veterans

On Saturday, May 23, beginning at 10:30 a.m., at the Brig. Gen. William C. Doyle Veterans Memorial Cemetery, located Wrightstown, we will remember, honor, and give thanks to those who died in service to this nation. The cemetery is the site of the state's official Memorial Day observance. Memorial Day is not only a day of remembrance; it is also a day of honor and a day of thanks. Doyle Cemetery is the busiest state veterans cemetery in the nation and the 10th busiest (state or federal) veteran cemetery overall. This Memorial Day, we will honor all of the brave men and women of our armed forces who made the ultimate sacrifice in defense of the freedom we hold so dear.

The ceremony begins with a parade that assembles on the grounds, consisting of dignitaries and elected officials, representatives of the state's major veteran organizations and lead by the Brig. Gen. William C. Doyle Veterans Memorial Cemetery's Joint Service Color Guard and the 63rd Army Band of the New Jersey Army National Guard.

The ceremony includes full military honors, rendered by soldiers from the Joint Forces Headquarters and other scheduled activities.

The Friday evening prior to the event (May 22), beginning at 5 p.m., more than 1,000 Boy and Girl Scouts from throughout New Jersey will commence placing American flags on each and every one of the graves at the cemetery. These young scouts accomplish this task in astonishing time.
