The New Jersey State Parole Board Internship Program seeks to provide meaningful work-learning experiences to qualified individuals currently attending area colleges and universities as well as graduates entering the job market. This unique program not only benefits the intern but also the New Jersey State Parole Board because it gives the agency the chance to engage with students to gain a stronger understanding of their interests in parole administration and law enforcement.

New Jersey State Parole Board Interns are given the opportunity to put theory into practice to gain a clear understanding of the agency's role in the area of criminal justice and work side-by-side with agency staff while exploring potential career options. The New Jersey State Parole Board is committed to providing hands-on experiences to interns and encourages them to explore parole careers.
