Sample Ballots in Polling Places
Sample ballots will be available at the polling place on the day of the election. The sample ballot shall be exactly as a possible ballot presented before the expiration of the election day but is permitted the board of elections to provide a sample ballot in an envelope which has the heading "Sample Ballots." The sample ballot shall be considerably similar in layout, colors, and illustration to the official ballot and shall have printed on it:
- "Sample Ballots in Polling Places"
- "Sample Ballots for the General Election"
- "Sample Ballots for the General Election 2022"
- "Sample Ballots for the General Election in New Jersey"
- "Sample Ballots for the General Election in New Jersey 2022"
- "Sample Ballots for the General Election in New Jersey for the Year 2022"
- "Sample Ballots for the General Election in New Jersey for the Year 2022 totaling 18 lines"

Vote By Mail

The hop to read to the board of elections the election district or move out of the County of registration. If you still have the application to the County’s Office Office, you must mail to the County’s Office in person. Ballots can be mailed by the County’s Office until 8:00 p.m. on the day before the election.

You may ask for a ballot by mail for all future elections until you request otherwise in writing. Also, any voter who votes by mail on any single election cannot request to receive a ballot for that election.

Authorized Messenger Process

Any voter may ask someone to be the Authorized Messenger to go to the County’s Office to get the ballot for the voter.

At the bottom of the application, you must write the name of the person you choose as your Authorized Messenger. If you do not choose an Authorized Messenger, the ballot must be mailed to the registered address. If these two addresses are the same, then the ballot will be sent to the person who requested the ballot.

There is no candidate in the election for which you are requesting a vote by mail to be voted as an Authorized Messenger.

Bearer Process

Any voter may ask someone to be their Bearer to return the ballot to the appropriate board of election for the voter.

The bearer must sign the certification stating that he or she received the ballot from the voter and that he or she is authorized to deliver the ballot to the appropriate board of election.

There is no candidate in the election for which you are requesting a vote by mail to be voted as a Bearer.

Track My Ballot Process

Voters can track their provisional ballots and vote by mail using their New Jersey State-accepted government election day, except the badge furnished by the county board of elections and all other materials printed on the day of the election.

Your registration information is not complete in the poll book, for example, your signature or address is missing; or

You are a "no-ID voter" who has not provided identification information (see "Identification Information" section of this manual for details on how to submit your identification information);

You are a voter with a disability who is not registered with the board of elections in your voting precinct, for example, your signature or address is missing; or

You are a registered voter of the county or city.

Provisional Ballot Voting

You MUST Vote By Provisional Ballot if:
- You are a registered voter in the county who was not registered in the County of registration, but for a reason that you did not provide at the time of voting, you did not vote at any other polling place.
- Your registration information is not complete in the poll book, for example, your signature or address is missing; or
- You are a "no-ID voter" who has not provided identification information (see "Identification Information" section of this manual for details on how to submit your identification information);
- You are a voter with a disability who is not registered with the board of elections in your voting precinct, for example, your signature or address is missing; or
- You are a registered voter of the county or city.

Additional Ballot Information

Every valid ballot is counted and is anonymous.

To ensure that your vote is counted in a ballot, you must sign the certification associated with the envelope when you return your vote by mail.

If you are going to vote by mail, your ballot must be postmarked no later than 8:00 p.m. on Election Day, November 8, 2022, and received by the county board of elections by 8:00 p.m. on Election Day, November 12, 2022.

If you vote by mail, you must submit your completed ballot to your county board of elections or one of the county authorized ballot drop box locations. Contact your county board of elections for a list of locations.

If you are a registered voter of the county or city, you must return your ballot to your county board of elections or postmark it on Election Day.

Exit Polling

It is legal. You may be asked by a media representative about your voting experience or your views on the polling place. You do not have to answer any questions if you do not want to.
