1. What is democracy? Does it mean government by all the people?

2. What is representative government?

3. What is a legislative district? How many senators and assembly people represent each district?

4. What are the steps for a bill to become a law?
   (a)
   (b)
   (c)
5. What three choices does the governor have after a bill is passed by the State Legislature?

(a)

(b)

(c)

6. What is a veto? And is the governor's veto the final word on a bill? Why?