

Felicia Grant

Founder - FG Design Solutions LLC

Felicia Grant has resided in the Red Bank area for several years, having previously lived in Rumson for over 20 years. Born and bred in Monmouth County, she raised her family of four children on the peninsula she calls home. In addition to having been a full-time mother, she owns her own business, FG Design Solutions LLC, a design and organizing firm. In her professional pursuit as an interior stylist and organizer, Felicia keeps specific focus on repurposing.

For many years she has been engaged in community, education, and arts organizations in the area. Felicia served on the Executive Parent Council of Rumson Country Day School, as well as serving as Chair of the Annual Rummage Sale, and other numerous charitable and civic causes. For several years Ms. Grant served as a theatrical set designer for the school, where many of her sets continue in use today.

As a proud member of Monmouth Arts, Felicia is scheduled to host their first Virtual Roaming ArtHouse event in Summer 2020. Ms. Grant is also a contributing artist with submissions to the ArtSpace 105 Digital Gallery, Distant Connection exhibition. Ms. Grant is also a member of the Shrewsbury Guild of Creative Art where she was awarded an Honorable Mention for one of her watercolor exhibits. In addition, her artwork was both displayed in the Brookdale Community College art gallery and incorporated in College, the Student Magazine of the Arts. Over the years Felicia has coordinated art gallery exhibits throughout the area.

Felicia has also served as a fundraising coordinator of the Monmouth County Historical Society. Ms. Grant also devoted considerable time and talent as the Event Chair of the Richard J. Hughes Foundation Dinner. In addition to her passion for arts and culture, Felicia is dedicated to environmental causes and currently serves on the Board of the NY/NJ Baykeeper.

Ms. Grant's educational background includes advanced course work in her field at Monmouth University and Brookdale Community College. Felicia's motto, "Live Artfully," is part of daily life in both her home and work, where there is a perfect reflection for all things artistic.
