

Jeremy Grunin
President
Grunin Foundation

Jeremy Grunin has over 25 years of leadership experience in the private sector where he managed teams of 1000+ employees responsible for over half a billion dollars in revenue. Since 2013, Jeremy has been actively engaged throughout the community as President of the Grunin Foundation, a proactive grantmaker focused on economic growth at the Central Jersey Shore. Jeremy is a Partner of Grunin Holdings, LLC., a New Jersey Partnership specializing in investing in third party commercial ventures. He has also hosted several talk radio shows on both AM and FM radio, including Topic A on WOBN. Jeremy's greatest accomplishment will always be his three children (now young adults), Josh, Becca and Emma.
