BRIT (BROWNFIELDS REDEVELOPMENT INTERAGENCY TEAM)
A State partner of the Task Force, BRIT is a resource group comprised of representatives from these State agencies and programs:

- Business Action Center/Office for Planning Advocacy
- NJ Transit
- NJ Historic Preservation Office
- NJ Dept. of Law and Public Safety
- NJ Dept. of Health, Consumer and Environmental Health Services
- NJ Economic Development Authority
- NJ Dept. of Education
- NJ Environmental Infrastructure Fund
- NJDCA/Local Planning Service
- NJDCA/Main Street
- NJDEP/Green Acres Program
- NJDEP/Land Use
- NJDEP/Office of Pollution Prevention and Permit Coordination
- NJ Dept. of Treasury
- NJDEP/Office of Brownfield Reuse
- NJ Board of Public Utilities
- NJ DCA Division of Housing
- NJ Dept. of Labor
- NJ Dept. of Agriculture
- NJDEP/Division of Science, Research and Technology
- NJ Housing and Mortgage Finance
- NJ State Council on the Arts
- NJ Department of Transportation
- NJ Dept. of Health and Senior Services

BRIT helps by:

- Introducing projects to State agencies and departments
- Promoting communication between the State, municipality and developer
- Streamlining the redevelopment process—from identifying opportunities and obstacles to providing financial and technical assistance
- Supplying the Brownfields Redevelopment Resource Kit, a useful reference for State resources and support from initial planning stages through project design, cleanup, construction and reimbursement
- Offering outreach to brownfields stakeholders via seminars, workshops and meetings
