DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

State law (NJ.S.A. 27:5-28, full text below) requires that any person or company who holds any outdoor advertising license or permit must file a disclosure statement with the New Jersey Department of Transportation. If a disclosure statement is not filed, the license and/or permit are subject to revocation.

N.J.S.A. 27:5-28

1. Any person who is the holder of any license to engage in the business of outdoor advertising or of any outdoor advertising permit issued pursuant to the provisions of P.L.1991, c.413 (C.27:5.5 et seq.) which is in effect on or after the effective date of P.L.2004, c.42 (C.27:5-27 et al.) shall be subject to revocation of that license or permit unless that person files a disclosure statement with the Department of Transportation which shall include:

a. The full name and business address of the person who is the holder of the outdoor advertising license or permit, as the case may be, and of any officers, directors, or partners thereof and all persons holding any equity in or debt liability of that corporation, association, firm, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or any other form of commercial organization, or, if the holder is a publicly traded corporation, all persons having more than 10% of the equity in or the debt liability of that corporation, association, firm, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or any other form of commercial organization, except where the debt liability is held by a chartered lending institution, the person need only supply the name and business address of the lending institution; and

b. The full name and business address of all officers, directors, or partners of any corporation, association, firm, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or any other form of commercial organization disclosed in the disclosure statement and the names and addresses of any corporation, association, firm, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or any other form of commercial organization so disclosed, or, if the corporation, association, firm, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or any other form of commercial organization is a publicly traded corporation, all persons having more than 10% of the equity in or the debt liability of that corporation, association, firm, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or any other form of commercial organization, except where the debt liability is held by a chartered lending institution, the person need only supply the name and business address of the lending institution.

The disclosure statement shall be filed within 60 days of the effective date of P.L.2004, c.42 (C.27:5-27 et al.), except for licenses or permits issued on or after the effective date of P.L.2004, c.42 (C.27:5-27 et al.), in which case the disclosure statement shall be filed within 60 days of the issuance of the license or permit.

Please complete all the items below, providing all information required by the law as cited previously.

1. Name and business address of person or company holding the license or permit:

2. Name and business address of each person required to be disclosed (attach additional sheets if necessary)

3. Name, signature, and certification of the person who completed this form:

I certify personally or as an agent for the person or company identified above as the holder of the license and/or permit that the information provided is complete, current and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that a new Disclosure Statement must be filed within 60 days of any change affecting this information, and that failure to remain in compliance with the regulations governing disclosure may result in the revocation of the license and/or permits of that person or company.
