A Problem Statement Review is undertaken to review a Problem Statement and weigh its merit against data and information contained in the Department’s various management systems. If the outcome is determined that the Problem Statement can be advanced for further study, Capital Investment Planning & Development (CIPD) informs the Project Manager of any known risks that were identified during the Problem Statement Review.