Route 4 westbound ramp to Garden State Parkway southbound overnight closures required as paving project advances in Paramus Signed detour will be in place overnight for several weeks

(Trenton) – New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT) officials today announced overnight closures on the Route 4 westbound ramp to the Garden State Parkway southbound as a paving project advances in Paramus, Bergen County.

Beginning at 10 p.m. tonight, Thursday, November 19, until 5 a.m. tomorrow, Friday, November 20, and repeating Monday through Friday for several weeks, the New Jersey Turnpike Authority's Contractor, Conti Enterprises, is scheduled to close the ramp from Route 4 westbound ramp to the Garden State Parkway southbound. This closure will allow the contractor to mill and pave the ramp. The following signed detour will be in place overnight:

Route 4 westbound ramp to Garden State Parkway southbound detour:

- Motorists traveling on Route 4 westbound wishing to take the ramp to the Garden State Parkway southbound will be directed to continue on Route 4 westbound
- Keep right and take the ramp to Paramus Road southbound
- Merge on Paramus Road southbound
- Take the ramp to the Garden State Parkway southbound

The precise timing of the work is subject to change due to weather or other factors. Motorists are encouraged to check NJDOT's traffic information website www.511nj.org for real-time travel information and for NJDOT news follow us on Twitter @NJDOT_info and on the NJDOT Facebook page.
