Route 71 Bridge over Shark River to reopen to vehicles and pedestrians at 4 p.m. today, Friday, May 31 Free shuttle between Belmar and Avon will continue to run through the weekend

(Trenton) – The Route 71 Drawbridge over Shark River between Belmar and Avon-by-the-Sea is scheduled to reopen to vehicles and pedestrians at 4 p.m. today, Friday, May 31, following the completion of emergency repairs.

The free shuttle bus between Belmar and Avon-by-the-Sea will continue to operate in a continuous loop from 6 a.m. to 2 a.m. through the weekend to provide spectators and participants in the Avon 5K Run/Walk on Saturday morning an additional means to get from Belmar to Avon-by-the-Sea for the event (Click here for event information). Route 71/Main Street will remain open during the event. Detailed shuttle information is below.

The Route 71 Bridge over Shark River, built in 1932, had a mechanical malfunction on March 1. The bridge was successfully secured in the open position on March 12 to allow all marine traffic to pass while emergency repairs were underway. Under federal law, NJDOT is legally obligated to allow marine traffic to pass, as it has the right of way.

Crews have been working multiple shifts, 7-days a week since March, including through Memorial Day weekend, to repair the bridge, install new components, and complete rigorous testing before the bridge was returned to normal operating status.

In addition to the emergency repairs to the moveable bridge components that are now complete, NJDOT is nearing completion of high priority structural steel repairs to the expansion joints on the approach spans (the fixed portion of the bridge). These repairs are being done under the bridge and do not affect the operation of the bridge. All lanes on the bridge will be maintained, as well as a sidewalk on one side of the bridge. However, traffic will be shifted. This work was scheduled before the emergency repairs and has been going on concurrently with the emergency repairs. It is expected to be completed in late June.

Shuttle to Run Through the Weekend
