For use by retired members of the following New Jersey State-administered retirement systems:

PERS — Public Employees’ Retirement System
SPRS — State Police Retirement System
TPAF — Teachers’ Pension and Annuity Fund
CPFPF — Consolidated Police and Firemen’s Pension Fund
PFRS — Police and Firemen’s Retirement System
POPF — Prison Officers Pension Fund

The Retired Member Designation of Beneficiary form allows a retired member to nominate a beneficiary, or beneficiaries, for benefits payable upon the death of that retired member. This form applies to both the group life insurance and pension benefits.

The designation you provide on this form will replace all beneficiary designations previously on file. However, be advised that the New Jersey Division of Pensions & Benefits (NJDPB) has the responsibility to deny changes to beneficiary designations that may violate a court order. If a court order exists, you may be required to furnish further documentation to the NJDPB to determine whether or not we can accept your Retired Member Designation of Beneficiary form.

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

This designation is for any group life insurance benefit payable at the time of your death. Group life insurance does not apply to retired members with less than 10 years of service credit, retired members of the CPFPF or POPF, or members who enrolled at age 60 or older and failed to prove insurability.

PENSION BENEFIT

For PERS and TPAF retired members, the pension benefit is based on the retirement option you selected:

- Maximum Option Benefit — The beneficiary or beneficiaries designated will be entitled to the pension allowance payable for the month in which you die, also known as the last check benefit.
- Option 1 Benefit — The beneficiary or beneficiaries designated will receive the balance of the reserve established at retirement, if any, in addition to the last check benefit. If the balance has been depleted, only the last check benefit will be payable.
- Option A, B, C, D, 2, 3, or 4 Benefit — The beneficiary you designated at retirement will receive a monthly pension. That beneficiary cannot be changed. That beneficiary is also entitled to the last check benefit. However, should that beneficiary predecease you, you may designate another beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive the last check benefit.

Note: If you selected Option A, B, C, or D, and your beneficiary predeceases you, please send a copy of the death certificate to our Beneficiary Services section at the address above. Upon receipt, we will begin processing your Maximum Option benefit.

For PFRS and SPRS retired members, the pension benefit is a monthly pension determined by governing statues regarding surviving spouses, civil union partners, domestic partners, and/or minor children. If none of these relationships are applicable to you, you may designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive the last check benefit.

Nominate your group life insurance beneficiary (if you are covered by group life insurance as a retired member) — Print the name of your primary beneficiary(ies) and contingent beneficiary(ies). DOs & DON’Ts

Do designate both primary and contingent beneficiaries. In the event of your death, the primary beneficiary (or beneficiaries) will receive any death benefits that are payable. The contingent beneficiary (or beneficiaries) will receive death benefits only if all primary beneficiaries have predeceased you. Unless otherwise stated, all beneficiaries will share and share alike. If no primary or contingent beneficiaries survive you, all death benefits will be paid to your estate.

You may nominate any of the following as your primary or contingent beneficiary:

• A person or persons;
• A trust, institution, charity, or corporation; or
• Your estate. Upon your death, a court-ordered surrogate certificate will be required.

If you choose a distribution of benefits other than the standard share and share alike, e.g., specific percentages, or if you are designating a minor or acting as power of attorney for the retired member, please refer to the Beneficiary Designation Fact Sheet before completing this form. You may obtain this fact sheet by visiting our website at: www.nj.gov/treasury/pensions

Do use full, proper names. When naming a married female as beneficiary, be certain the proper name is given, e.g., Mary J. Jones, not Mrs. John R. Jones. You must list each individual using his or her specific name; such phrases as “my children,” “my living grandchild,” or “my children’s issue” will not be accepted.

Do use full Social Security numbers, dates of birth, and mailing addresses for your beneficiaries. Incomplete forms will not be accepted.

Do not send a photocopy or fax this form. Our office requires original Retired Member Designation of Beneficiary forms.

Do not use white out or cross out names to make changes in designation. This makes the form unacceptable and a new form will be mailed to you for your completion.

Do not use a Retired Member Designation of Beneficiary form to update a beneficiary’s address. Instead, send us a signed letter notifying us of your beneficiary’s address change. Your letter will be added to your file so your beneficiary information remains current.
Please read and follow the instructions before completing this form.

1. Q. All of my beneficiaries’ information will not fit on this application. What do I do?
   A. If additional space is required, an attachment sheet is acceptable, provided it is signed and dated by you. In addition to the beneficiary information, please be sure to include your name, date of birth, address, daytime telephone number and Social Security number.

2. Q. What if I leave a section blank?
   A. If the Group Life Insurance section is not completed (and you have group life insurance coverage as a retired member), this benefit will automatically default to your estate. If the Pension Benefit section is left blank, your beneficiary will depend on the retirement system to which you belong (and the retirement option you selected if you are a PERS or TPAF member). However, if the only pension benefit payable is the last check benefit, and you leave the Pension Benefit section blank, this benefit will automatically default to your estate.

3. Q. Why do I have to provide my daytime telephone number?
   A. We may have questions regarding the information on your Retired Member Designation of Beneficiary form. To expedite the designation process, contacting you by phone instead of written correspondence enables us to provide prompt and efficient service.

4. Q. I am in the process of getting divorced. How should I word my form?
   A. Since each divorce case (or dissolution of a civil union) is different and can be complex, please refer to the Divorce, Dissolution of a Civil Union, and Retirement Benefits Fact Sheet.

5. Q. Can my power of attorney complete my Retired Member Designation of Beneficiary form?
   A. Per statute, in order for a power of attorney to change beneficiary information, his or her power of attorney documents must specifically state this right. Further, should you wish the power of attorney to be able to nominate himself or herself as beneficiary, the power of attorney document must specifically state that right as well. Most standard power of attorney documents do not grant these rights. Before your power of attorney files a Retired Member Designation of Beneficiary form on your behalf, please carefully review your power of attorney documents.
