

CHAPTER 407

AN ACT concerning conservation officers in the Department of Environmental Protection and amending various parts of the statutory law.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The Legislature finds and declares that:
 - a. Currently, law enforcement officers of the Division of Fish and Wildlife in the Department of Environmental Protection have the title of “conservation officer”;
 - b. Conservation officers are trained law enforcement officers whose duties and responsibilities have increased beyond the traditional game warden or fish warden role;
 - c. These officers with Statewide authority to enforce the laws of the State, as graduate biologists, receive the same intense training as police officers in the State, and because they usually work alone in remote areas of the State, including inland lakes, boundary rivers, marine waters, bays, inlets, and offshore waters, face the same dangers as other armed and uniformed police officers;
 - d. Grant programs for law enforcement agencies do not recognize the title of conservation officers, hindering the ability of conservation officers to qualify for grant programs for law enforcement agencies; and
 - e. To recognize this, and to enable these officers to qualify for grant programs for law enforcement agencies, it is therefore appropriate to change the title of conservation officer to conservation police officer throughout the statutes.
2. N.J.S.2C:39-6 is amended to read as follows:

(2) The Commissioner of Environmental Protection, with the approval of the Marine Fisheries Council, may, by regulation, establish a penalty schedule for any specific violation of this act or of any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this act. No such penalty may be less than $30 or more than $100 for the first offense or less than $50 or more than $200 for any subsequent offense.
