The ST-10V must be used to support a sales tax exemption claimed by a purchaser of a vessel in the State on or after June 1, 1988.

Subsection N.J.S.A. 54:32B-10(a) of the New Jersey Sales Tax Act provides as follows:

"Receipts from any sale of a vessel shall not be subject to sales tax imposed under subsection (a) of section 3, despite the taking of physical possession by the purchaser within this State, provided that the purchaser, at the time of taking delivery:

- 1) is a nonresident of this State,
- 2) has no permanent place of abode in this State,
- 3) is not engaged in carrying on in this State any employment, trade, business or profession in which the vessel will be used in this State.
- 4) will not house, moor, base or otherwise place the vessel in this State for use on other than a transient basis or for repairs at any time within 12 months from the date of purchase.

For the purposes of this subsection, any person who maintains a place of abode in New Jersey is a resident individual."

DEFINITIONS:

Abode: A place of abode is a dwelling place maintained by a person, or by another for him, whether or not owned by such person, on other than a temporary or transient basis.

Corporations: Any corporation incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, and any corporation, association, partnership or other entity doing business in this State or maintains a place of business in the State or maintains a place of business in the State, or operating a hotel, place of amusement or social or athletic club in the state is a resident.
