

How to Apply for the FAIR Rebate

How you apply for the FAIR rebate is determined by whether you were a homeowner or a tenant on October 1, 2005. Homeowners and tenants file different applications.

Tenants. The application for the FAIR tenant rebate, Form TR-1040, is contained in this booklet. Those who rented and occupied a home in New Jersey that was their principal residence on October 1, 2005, and who meet the other requirements below are eligible.

Homeowners. Applications for the FAIR homeowner rebate are expected to be mailed at the end of April, and homeowners will apply either online or by phone. Homeowners do not use the application in this booklet. Residents who owned, occupied and paid property taxes on a home in New Jersey that was their principal residence on October 1, 2005, and whose 2005 gross income was $200,000 or less are eligible. Rebate amounts and qualifications for eligibility are subject to restrictions due to State budgetary constraints.

NOTE: If you were a homeowner for part of the year, but your principal residence on October 1, 2005, was a dwelling that you rented, you may be eligible for FAIR rebate as a tenant. See below.

Tenant Eligibility

To be eligible for a New Jersey FAIR rebate as a tenant:

- ◆ You must have rented and occupied a home in New Jersey that was your principal residence on October 1, 2005; and
- ◆ Your gross income for the entire year must have been $100,000 or less (see Note under Line 11, Total Gross Income, on page 57); and
- ◆ Your principal residence must be subject to local property taxes, and property taxes must have been paid on that residence through rent; and

- ◆ Your dwelling unit must contain its own separate kitchen and bath facilities; and
- ◆ If you are filing Form NJ-1040, you must file the FAIR Tenant Rebate Application (Form TR-1040) and the NJ-1040 by April 17, 2006, or if you are filing the NJ-1040 under an extension, by the extended due date. If you are filing only Form TR-1040, see “Rebate Only Filers” below.

Rebate Only Filers. A tenant who is not required to file a New Jersey income tax return (because of income below the minimum filing threshold) and meets the qualifications for a FAIR tenant rebate may file only Form TR-1040 to claim a rebate. It is not necessary to file the NJ-1040 along with the FAIR tenant rebate application. These residents have until October 31, 2006, to file Form TR-1040.

Part-Year Residents. A part-year resident who rented a principal residence on October 1, 2005, and meets all the eligibility requirements qualifies for a FAIR tenant rebate. Part-year residents must enter their full-year income from all sources on Line 9 of Form TR-1040.

TAX TIP Married, Filing Separate Return. If your filing status is married, filing separate return and you maintain the same principal residence as your spouse, you must combine your gross income with your spouse’s gross income when applying for the rebate. Neither you nor your spouse can receive more than one-half of the rebate that you would receive if you filed a joint return. Both you and your spouse must file Form TR-1040 to be eligible to receive up to one-half of the rebate.

Principal Residence. A principal residence means a homestead, actually and continually occupied as your permanent residence. No rebate will be granted for a vacation home or a “second home.”

Mobile Homes. If you own or rent a mobile home which is located in a mobile home park, you are considered a tenant for purposes of applying for the rebate. For more information on mobile homes, contact the Division’s Customer Service Center.

TAX TIP Co-ops and Continuing Care Retirement Communities. Resident shareholders of cooperative housing complexes and residents of continuing care retirement communities are considered homeowners for FAIR rebate purposes and should not file the application in this booklet. Applications for the FAIR homeowner rebate are expected to be mailed at the end of April.

Rebate Amount

The Division of Taxation will calculate the amount of your rebate based on the information you provide. The amount of your rebate is determined by your income, filing status, and whether you were age 65 or older or eligible to claim an exemption as blind or disabled for tax year 2005. Rebate amounts and qualifications for eligibility are subject to restrictions due to State budgetary constraints.

For 2004, eligible tenants who were age 65 or older or disabled received rebates ranging from a minimum of $150 up to a maximum of $825, and eligible tenants under age 65 and not disabled received rebates of $75. For 2005, these restrictions may or may not apply.

Seniors or Blind/Disabled Persons. If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) were 65 years of age or older or blind or disabled on the last day of the tax year, and your gross income on Line 28 is $20,000 or less ($10,000 if filing status is single or married, filing separate return), and you are eligible for a property tax credit in the amount of $50, ($25 if filing status is married, filing separate return and you maintain the same residence as your spouse) this credit will automatically be sent to you with your FAIR rebate. If you are filing Form NJ-1040, do not complete Line 36 to claim a property tax deduction or Line 46 to claim a property tax credit.

Identification Section

Name and Address

Rebate Only Filers. If you are filing only the FAIR tenant rebate application, place the peel-off label from the front of this booklet in the name and address section at the top of the application. Do not use the label if any of the information is incorrect. If your label contains inaccurate information or you do not have a label, print or type your name (last name first), complete address, and zip code in the spaces provided. Also include your spouse's name if filing jointly.

If your address has changed, complete the address portion of the identification section.

Filing Status (Lines 1 - 5)

You must use the same filing status on your FAIR tenant rebate application as you do for your New Jersey Resident Income Tax Return (Form NJ-1040). If you do not file Form NJ-1040, use the same filing status as you would have used if you had filed the tax return. Indicate the appropriate filing status. Fill in only one oval.

Head of Household. Your filing status is head of household if you are unmarried on the last day of the year and pay more than one-half of the cost of keeping up a home for yourself and at least one dependent. Certain married individuals living apart may file as head of household for New Jersey if they meet the requirements to file as head of household for Federal purposes. You may also qualify to file as head of household if you are no longer eligible to file as qualifying widow or widower and you have not remarried.

Qualifying Widow(er). If your spouse died during the year, you are considered married for that entire year and you may file a joint return for yourself and your deceased spouse provided you did not remarry before the end of the year. You may be eligible to use the filing status "qualifying widow(er)" for each of the two tax years after the year in which your spouse died if you pay more than one-half of the cost of keeping up a home for yourself and at least one child, step-child, adopted child, or foster child who qualifies as your dependent.

Married Persons. You may use the filing status "Married, filing joint return" or "Married, filing separate return" only if you and your spouse were married on the last day of the tax year. If you were a member of a domestic partnership registered in New Jersey, you are not considered "married" and you may not use these filing statuses.

For more information on filing status, request Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-4, Filing Status.

NJ Residency Status (Line 6)

If you were a New Jersey resident for only part of the taxable year, list the month, day, and year your residency began and the month, day, and year it ended. All months should be listed as two-digit numbers with the digits 01 for January, 02 for February, 03 for March, etc. Place the correct number for the beginning and ending months directly in the boxes containing the letter "M," one digit in each box.

Place the correct number for the beginning and ending dates directly in the boxes containing the letter "D," one digit in each box.

Tenant on October 1, 2005 (Line 7)

If you rented and occupied an apartment or other rental dwelling in New Jersey as your principal residence on October 1, 2005, fill in "Yes" and continue completing the application. If you answer "No" here, you are not eligible for a 2005 FAIR rebate as a tenant. Do not file Form TR-1040.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) were 65 years of age or older or blind or disabled on the last day of the tax year, fill in only one oval at Line 8 as follows:

Tax-Exempt, Subsidized, and Campus Housing

One of the qualifications for the New Jersey FAIR rebate is that property taxes be paid on the applicant's principal residence, either directly or through rent. Thus, tenants living in dwellings which are not subject to local property taxes are not eligible for the rebate. This includes:

- ♦ Tenants living in dwellings owned by the State, County, Municipal, or Federal Government;
- ♦ Students living in on-campus apartments at State colleges and universities;
- ♦ Tenants living in dwellings owned by a religious, charitable, or other nonprofit organization (including on-campus apartments at private, nonprofit colleges and universities), if the property is exempt from property taxes; and
- ♦ Tenants living in dwellings on which P.I.L.O.T. (Payments-in-Lieu-of-Tax) payments are made to the municipality. These payments are not considered property taxes for purposes of the FAIR rebate.

Do not complete the FAIR Tenant Rebate Application (Form TR-1040) if the dwelling you rent is not subject to local property taxes; you do not qualify for a rebate. If you are not sure whether the dwelling you rent is subject to local property taxes, contact your municipal tax assessor for information. The Division of Taxation audits returns to ensure that only qualified applicants receive rebates.
